TO the Point

With all of the Christmas greetings plus pictures from the wonderful South Central Convention, the magazine is full and I hope enjoyable. I would like to receive more news from around the state letting us know what you are doing. The next issue will be out on the last day of February, so email pictures and news about your clubs by the middle of the month. Have a wonderful time with family and friends this Christmas! Tina

Pearls of Wisdom

Dear Texas Club Woman,

What can I say? Well, what a wonderful showing Texas had at the South Central Region Conference in October. One thing I have noticed is that Texas women come out and support our Federation efforts. We had about 50 women from Texas attend the "Greatest Show on Earth" put on by the greatest GFWC clubwomen. In all, approximately 120 women (and some men) attended from the six states that comprise South Central Region. This is an outstanding attendance at a Region conference.

Thank you for all the hard work you put into making Texas shine...to the committee chairmen and committees who did all the work in putting this together, to the women who supported us by their attendance and donations, and to the women who supported us every step of the way.

Let me share with you the note I received from GFWC International President Mary Ellen Brock:

The Texas Clubwomen outdid themselves as hostess of South Central Region. The table decorations were lovely with each one outdoing the one before. I loved the photo op backdrop as it encouraged members to have fun and make photo memories.

The Executive Dinner was very special. It was so nice to be able to sit and talk with the members at the table. Loved lunch at Neiman Marcus! The Book Depository tour was poignant and amazing how those memories flooded back into my being.

The gift from the dinner was so very special and one that will always remind me of a special time with some very special sweet women.

As we approach the holiday season, I am reminded of the importance of family. It is a time to be with those who are special to us. Our Federation family is very special, and one I look forward to seeing as I travel the breadth of the state.

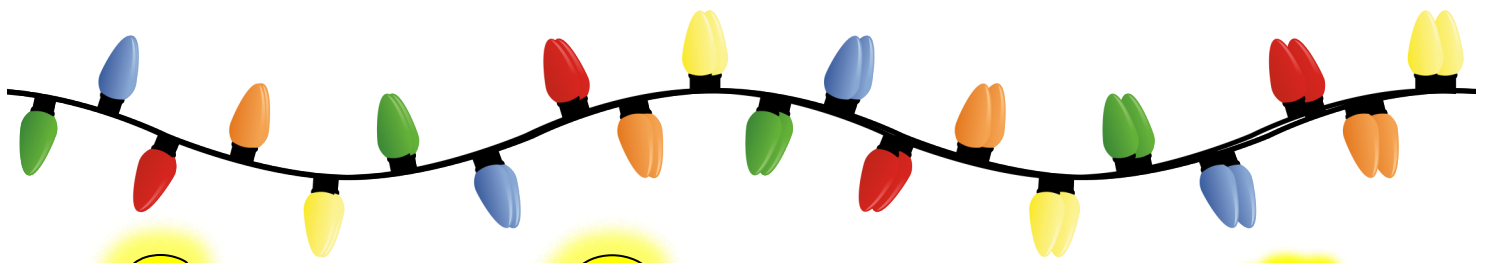

In Federation Friendship and Sisterhood,

Carol

Spotlight Club

GFWC Woman's Club of Cotulla
Alamo District

President: Novella Byrd

Present membership: 36 active members, 2 associate members, 1 member on leave of absence.

The Woman's Club of Cotulla was organized in October 1923 and chartered in November 1923. There were 22 charter members. Two of our members are granddaughters of one of these charter members; the daughter-in-law of one of the present members marks the fourth generation of membership in the Woman's Club.

Seeing the need for books for the local school children and community in general, the Woman's Club sought to establish the first free public library in Cotulla. Through the persistent efforts of the Woman's Club, the first public library was built in 1937. The Club helped obtain and borrow over 100 books from the San Antonio Public Library. The Club continues to assist the local library which in 1973 was moved to its current location and is now known as the Alexander Memorial Library.

The Woman's Club of Cotulla also had an influence in our local Veteran's park which sits in front of the La Salle County Courthouse. The Club would often have fundraisers to help with the upkeep of the park and members would prepare care packages for the many local men of Cotulla that were deployed.

The Club was also influential in the upkeep of Cotulla, in the 1940's when there was no trash pickup for the town, the Woman's Club arranged and paid for the trash pickup in the whole town. The Club was also responsible for getting the first street signs installed on the main streets of Cotulla. In the 1980's the Club assisted in bringing in the first EMS service to the area. In 2018-19 the Club has adopted two miles of highway and will participate in the "Don't Mess with Texas" Campaign. In 1960, Nelda Watson, the President at that time, decided that students needed to be recognized for academic achievement similar to students that were recognized for athletics and band. She organized the first Honors Banquet. In 2019, the Woman's Club will sponsor its 59th Annual Honors Banquet. During the Banquet the Club honors the top three students from each grade 9-12 and recognizes the members of the National Honor Society and the Middle School's National Junior Honor Society members. The scholarship program began as a money loan program in 1985; the club is now able to give three scholarships and one high English award to graduating seniors going on to higher education. More recently the Club strives to help those people who are marginalized in the community raising awareness and monies for Child Abuse Awareness, Domestic Violence Awareness, Dating Violence Awareness and Human Trafficking. Monetary and in kind donations are collected for the Wintergarden Women's Shelter and the Children's Alliance of South Texas, a Child Advocacy Center.

During the 2018-19 Club year the Woman's Club of Cotulla will participate in three of the Grand Initiatives proposed by the International Administration. We will plant trees for Arbor Day, donate blankets, books, and stuffed animals to the Child Advocacy Center for the MLK National Day of Service and donate Dr. Seuss books to a local daycare that offers free daycare to young mothers who are still in school.

Recruitment is a priority;
Unity in Diversity is our mantra.

Members Matter

Remember: Members Matter; You Matter!

Carolyn McLeod

GFWC Texas 2nd Vice president

Congratulations on the start of another wonderful club year. As the GFWC Texas officer in charge of membership, I look forward to hearing about your club's membership, numbers and stories.

To begin our chat, I will share a story about my own club. Over the summer, GFWC Woman's Wednesday Club of Granbury, Inc. had an unusual loss of five members. We were a bit panicked as that does not happen often. Even though most of the losses were due to members moving or a need to devote more time to family, it was a scary time for WWC. Well, several of our members just took the loss as a challenge and immediately contacted friends about interest in joining. Good news! Yes, those friends were interested, came to the first meeting in September, joined the group, and immediately signed up to work the annual style show fundraiser.

Reporting Periods are as follows:

Summer—Retention (June, July, August; Report due September 1)

Fall—Recruitment (September, October, November; Report due December 1)

Winter—Mentoring (December, January, February; Report due March 1)

Spring—Recognition (March, April, May; Report due June 1)

While the reporting period has already started, one can always back report. Just get those new members names down and share them with GFWC and GFWC Texas on the next due date.

Also remember that February 1 is the last postmark date for sending reports on your club telling what the club has done through 2018. This officer is waiting to hear from you on membership. Tell me your stories, the fun you had, the ways you recruited members, and the ways you honored your current members to keep them part of your club.

Keep those membership rolls filled; invite a friend; invite a neighbor; invite an acquaintance. If you love your club, chances are others will also.

Happy Holidays, Y'all!

Merry Christmas!

Work at the TFWC Headquarters' Building has been ongoing and busy as the TFWC Historical Foundation Trustees oversee the work of the staff. The work includes both maintenance work and the work to ensure the building is shining when GFWC Texas hosts the GFWC International Convention. The facilities manager was notified in June by the Austin Fire Marshal and the City of Austin that there was not a certificate of occupancy for hosting events in the building. The facilities manager has continued to work with the fire marshal's office. In October, we were granted a temporary occupancy load of 600 guests. If we plan to have more than 300 guests, we must hire a fire watch to be onsite during the event. The facility manager and I will meet with the Austin Fire Marshal in an effort to determine what will be required to obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy. The Past Presidents Pavers were moved, the broken stones repaired, and new stones engraved for the presidents who did not have stones. The pavers are in place and look great. The ballroom floor was refinished using a new product and looks wonderful. The travertine floors have been deep cleaned, honed and sealed. The parlor has been refurbished. Five chairs were reupholstered. Two new sofas and two new chairs were purchased. A new carpet runner was installed on the stairway in the entry. We continue to host weddings and receptions in the building. The facilities manager is always looking other potential clients. There have been several interesting groups using our building as a venue for their events including Austin Ballet shooting their season brochure, The Macallan Manor tasting, and a four day yoga conference.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

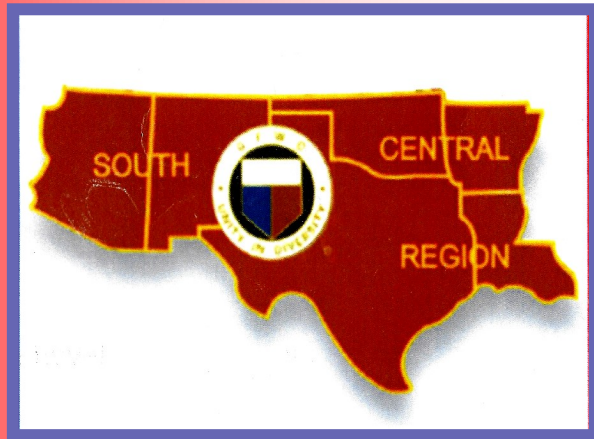

Barbara Harvey TFWC Historical Foundation Chairman

Thank you for your donations to the Disaster Fund to support hurricane relief in North and South Carolina and other natural disasters. I am in awe of the generosity of the Texas clubwomen to their sisters around the country. Individual thank you notes will be sent to those who have donated.

South Central Region Annual Conference 2018

No Place Like Home
Irving, Texas

Texas was delighted to serve as host for the 2018 South Central Region Conference. We welcomed GFWC members from all of the South Central States; Arizona, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and of course, Texas! We also were especially pleased to welcome the South Central Region President, Pat Pisarski and from GFWC our International President, Mary Ellen Brock and GFWC President- Elect Marian St. Clair. After lunch at Neiman Marcus and a visit to the 6th Floor museum at Dealeu Plaza, GFWC members enjoyed a very good conference with great speakers, great food, and amazing entertainment by students from the Booker T. Washington High School of the Performing Arts. We enjoyed showing off Texas and welcoming our GFWC friends from across the region.

Friday night, we Celebrated Texas! No one can celebrate their state like Texans! We did it big...because everything is bigger in Texas!

From Lynn Long's Boots to Carolyn Mc
Leod's tip of her hat, we celebrated Texas!

Districts of TFWC designed table decorations to symbolize their areas!

Mary Ellen Brock gave the Official Greeting. Members visited and enjoyed each others company!

Friday night's entertainment was provided by the Booker T. Washington High School of the Visual and Performing Arts of Dallas

These amazing students gave a very professional performance and it was enjoyed by all. Mary Ellen Brock, Pat Pisarski. And carol Habgood congratulate the students

Saturday was Wear Pink for Breast Cancer Awareness Day!

Saturday's meeting provided the opportunity for Department Chairmen and Director's of Special Programs to provide needed information. Among these informative presentations, Patti Poe, Chairman off GFWC Communications and Public Relations gave a demonstration of her very clever "recipe" for communicating with your members.

The Luncheon Speaker was Muriel Simms, a Breast cancer Survivor and guest speaker told her story. (right top) There were an amazing number of Breast Cancer Survivors among the members at the Meeting. Kaye Brown, member of Las Fidelis Study Club of Levelland, Texas (left bottom) is a two time survivor. The table decorations reflected the theme of Breast Cancer Awareness and each survivor took home a plaque.

Elizabeth Hemby, The 2018 Texas Leads Graduate, gave a very good speech as she always does! (right bottom)

Stephenville Study Club Creates Cookbook

Donna Hendershot, chairman of Public Relations of the Stephenville Study Club, reports that their club was very busy over the course of the summer. Last year they decided as a club to resurrect a Study Club Cookbook. It was a big endeavor but they all embraced it and gathered new and original recipes. The last cookbook was from 1980 and since our membership has grown, we collaborated and started a committee. The committee chair is Kelijon Nance. Other members contributing to the committee are Alissa Terrell Starbird, Cathy Erck, Sandra Hodges, Susan Spin-dor, Donna Hendershot, Gwen Schneck, Lynda Weatherby and Patricia Weldon. The Cookbook title is Delicious Traditions: Stephenville Study Club 85th Anniversary Cookbook 1933 –2018.
