1900 Gateway Boulevard Traditional King $135.00 per McKinney Texas Traditional Double/Double $145.00 per
Plus, applicable taxes & fees
Cutoff Date 4/3/24

Credentials & Voting Privileges: Deadline to submit Credentials Form is April 10, 2024.

All GFWC Texas members are invited to attend the 127th Annual Convention. However, like most convention bodies, only certain members are designated as delegates, as specified in the bylaws, Article VII. Although entitled to vote in several capacities, a voting member shall have but one (1) vote. Members who do not receive a vote attend as a non-voting member and may take part in discussion, but not make a motion.

All eligible voting members shall be certified by the Credentials Chairman. Credentials cards will be issued at the Registration desk. The form to be submitted to obtain credentials is included in this Call to Convention.

Note: Credentials forms may be submitted via electronic transmission as well as conventional mail.

Convention Registration: The Convention Registration Form is included in this Call to Convention.

Registration deadline is April 14, 2024. Please be sure to note any dietary restrictions.

(Note: The proposed bylaws amendments and budget are included in this Call to Convention as well as available on the GFWC Texas Website.

As this is an election year, Candidate Bio Information is also including for your convenience.)

Attached to this Call to Convention you will find a handy guide to the candidates for GFWC Texas 2024-2026. This guide includes a photo and short bio of each of the candidates running for state office.

We will be hosting Becky Wright from GFWC Mississippi and the current 2022-2024 GFWC Treasurer as our Special Guest. Becky will be serving as our Installation Officer as we install the incoming 2024-2026 State Officers on Saturday evening, April 27.

You won't want to miss this gala event.
